

Past Conference Report on Annual Meet on Maternal & Infant Diseases and Medicine

We are delighted to inform you that Webinar on Annual Meet on Maternal & Infant Diseases and Medicine Scheduled on September 18, 2020 at 10:00 AM (UTC +5:30) has been successfully hosted with eminent speakers around the world. The summit will be forward with the theme Smart Innovative Trends in Maternal & Infant Care.

Scientific sessions Webinar on Annual Meet on Maternal & Infant Diseases and Medicine

- Maternal Mortality
- Treatments and Therapies
- Maternal Sepsis
- Gynaecology
- Midwifery Nursing
- Perinatology
- Maternal and Child Health
- Pregnancy and its complications

Eminent Speakers at Webinar on Annual Meet on Maternal & Infant Diseases and Medicine

Mariana Luna, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Biography

Nutritionist graduated from Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ) and a Master's student in Clinical Medicine, from postgraduate program of the Faculty of Medicine of UFRJ. Currently, she works as Clinical Nutritionist and as a Researcher in Micronutrients Research Center from UFRJ, where she takes part since the first year of college and now coordinates graduate students activity (interns). Since before her graduation in Nutrition, she has participated as co-author in published studies related to adolescence and obesity. Nowadays, her research line focuses in obesity, entero-hormones, weight gain and bariatric surgery, besides contributions in studies related to child-maternal health.

For upcoming webinar details,

Connect us at: + 44 7482 874377